Let Major take you through the city streets of his hood, with witty word play, over intoxicating, musical hip-hop vibes. A must have for headz. Don't miss out... 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: The ever so, fast growing, In Da Lab records, brings you the highly anticipated album, from Chi-Towns lyrical fiend, Major, Master and Juggernaut of Rhymes", available now! Featuring the hit single, Itz Me", that's burnin up the airwaves and clubs. The album also includes future classic, such as, Liquidda," Bustin Loose and the cunning tale about The Generals Daughter." Major made a name for himself with the debut single "Zone of My Own", which was an instant hit on WGCI's "Slam it or Jam it" and "Home Jam". Major was also featured on a Chicago compilation album in 2000, with not one, but, two heavy hitters, "Robbery" and "Two Hott"(which smoked in clubs), this help create his strong following in the Midwest. Major has been performing in local clubs and colleges, visiting local and college radio stations, doing guest spots, offering a freestyle here and there. Also doing promos for dj shows such as, power92 Spank Boogie's, "Boogie Knights" show and The Chocolate Jocks. Once in a while you hear somebody with potential, and Major is just that person. There is definately a way for this cat to make it big if he stays focused and continues to do what he does. This cd is one of the better releases from the Indalab label and it even made regular play on my cd player. You can hear clearly that Major is hungry for this rap game, and that's what always makes it interesting to listen to an album like this. Check this, perhaps not now, but maybe in 2 years I see Major getting a really good deal with a label. That's if he keeps focused. The first track Don't Fuck Wit Us was pretty dope, and catcy too, the only thing I did not like was the cheesy chorus. Itz Me I thought was nice to listen to for the sample that was used in the production. I'm sure I've heard that sample somewhere before, I just can't place it. Revenue is another track I'm loving here. But the best track on here is Deep Freeze, yeah, now this is something that I can play in my ride. Take a couple of listens to this and you'll see that Major got major potential. Unlike many other emcees starting out Major has his feet placed firmly on the ground, this is evident when you hear his consistent flow throughout the album. You can easily hear that Major is clearly comfortable with himself on the mic and just for that if you in Chicago then go out and support him. Visit the site for audio snippets. With his distinctive voice, sharp delivery, skillful metaphors, strong will and determination, Major is on his way to becoming a household name. Rakim, Common, and all the pioneers that gave this blessing to me and showed me how to make sense of the situations that I experienced growing up and just living my life. Without them I'd probably still just walk around with a beat inside my head with no words. Tags: hip hop/rap: rap
