DOWNLOAD HERE

The music on this cd is a mix of Jazz, Blues, Dixie, and Gospel with a contemporary feel and flair. Sure to have something for everyone 5 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: The Debut Cd of Michelle Burnside is sincere, yet innocent at the same time. The genre of the music goes from Blues to Jazz, to Dixieland, to traditional Gospel. This is a must have cd as the musicianship is hard to compare. The vocals are smooth and relaxing. Michelle Burnside is the bass player in two bands: The Praise and Worship team at her local church, and a band put together by husband Rick Burnside called N.P.A. She has also played bass guitar on other people's cd's. She was rhythm guitarist for a couple of Praise and Worship teams as well. Rick Burnside produced the CD and did all the recording and mixing. The master musician that he is, Rick Burnside played all of the instrumentation in the cd except for the guitar, bass, and flute. The horn solos are phenomenal! All the back-up vocals were done by Rick Special thanks to Liz Westhafer for her part in putting the flute intro to Show me the Way. Fermin Presno a renown artist did all the awesome cd artwork. Michelle Burnside has been teaching music full time for the last 9 1/2 years, and has 32 students a week. "My goal is to raise up the next generation of musicians, and to teach the love of music to kids." Michelle says, " I want my life to reflect what God has done for me, and to be a role model and example in a world that does not have many good ones." "All the music and lyrics are from God to my heart, and from life experience. I have been serving Him for 18 years now!!" The revues coming back have been: The music is relaxing. The music is sincere, yet innocent. The music made me bop around the house. I enjoy all types of music, and the cd is a mixture of many types of music styles. "My hope and prayer is that in some way the music will touch you or a loved one, or anyone, to see that God is Love. And He is always there." Michelle
