Direction Shakespeare and Appalachian Mountain music and it works! Original Cast recording of the hit play with original arrangements by music maestro, Rob Kendt. Robert L. Williams' original adaptation stunned and delighted Los Angeles audiences aligning rich, traditional mountain music with the poetry of Shakespearean verse. Setting Shakespeare's Twelfth Night in an isolated coal-mining town in the thirties, it incorporates an Appalachian Band "Rev. Karl and the Pikeville Pickers" drawing from the traditional folk music handed down from the Elizabethan Ancestors of the mountain dwellers. Enjoy this one of a kind, original cast recording from the critically acclaimed production! dancingbarefootproductions.com
