A Traditionally blended, Spiritual style with a Contemporary appeal to it. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Prophet Fred Estell and The True Visionaires is a singing ministry composed of young men ranging from 25-35 yrs.of age. these young men are truly men of God, and they all are saved and full of the Holy Ghost. These same young men are very active in their home church ministries, but they feel that God is pulling them to the next level in ministry; to go beyond the church walls and move into the flow of ministry that streams to the utmost parts of the earth. They fell that the gift of singing with a prophetic anointing gives them the nod from God to do just that. Thier motto is from Acts 2:17"In the last days saith God I will pour out of my spirit on all flesh and your sons and daughters shall prophesy.....and your young men shall see visions and you old men shall dream dream." They feel like these are the last days and they are those young men; hence their name The True Visionaires, this group have been singing on a combined average of about 27 years. The music they create has the power to move you beyond your circumstances however good or bad they may be, and bring you into a place in your spirit that brings about peace! The True Visionaires are the next level in Gospel Music that brings old school and new school together and stir. This is the group for this season please listen and enjoy what God has to say through these anointed men of God. Prophet Fred Estell and The True Visionaires.
