Bryan has been making sweets for a long time. Too long, maybe, especially when he's missing his dead lover. But he has a calling, a special talent that makes his confections more than they seem. Just the thing to help sweeten a life here, spice up another there. Magical truffles make for wonderful stories from their customers, and assistant James is pleased for the people Bryan helps, but he thinks his maddening boss needs a little help in the happiness department. Can he help Bryan in and out of the kitchen?
