smooth r&b with Gospel inspiration 8 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: David Farmer, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is a musician and producer. He has extensive knowledge of musical technique and application. David has been all over the world sharing his gift with other producers, singers, songwriters, and lovers of music. He now resides in Atlanta where he has embraced the next level of his career. David is the founder and owner of DAF Music established in 2001. Under DAF Music, he produced several projects including "The Sound of Christmas" in 2001 and his latest release, "Purposed 4 Life". This project is one that is close to his heart because for the first time in his career he understands the value in doing much with little. "I feel that, as a musician, it is important to take full advantage of any positive opportunity that comes my way, even if there are obstacles". My contact information on the CD isn't current.
