DOWNLOAD HERE

Infectious, catchy, acoustic based original music with a slice of bluegrass, a tinge of reggae and a little bit of swing. 13 MP3 Songs in this album (30:32) ! Related styles: KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly People who are interested in Dan Zanes Raffi Justin Roberts should consider this download. Details: A sometimes rollicking, sometimes gentle, introduction to the concept of green practices that take care of our planet. Kids (and parents) will be singing along with Hans on tunes about solar energy and wind power, farmers markets, clean water and air, habitat, playing outside, and appreciating and caring for our world. Hans and backup singers, including elementary age school kids, provide the warm vocals. The band plays acoustic guitar, mandolin, and upright bass, with a sometimes blue-grass flavor to the original songs. Hans Mayer plays ear-tickling, family oriented music with an irresistible sense of humor. People of all ages are immediately attracted to his playful personality and his true-to-family-life songs. Singing and playing guitar, mandolin and Native American flute - and adding sound effects when the song calls for it - Hans has enchanted audiences across the East coast, Midwest and most recently the Northwest. His eight albums for families are hits with both kids and their parents. "The Star of the Swingset" CD was named a Parents' Choice Foundation Recommended Title. In 2007 his "Funny Little Creatures" CD was selected as a Parents' Choice Approved Title and as a 2008 Children's Music Web Award Winner. "Mayer's mellow voice, a playful spirit and jazzy instrumentals enliven varied songs targeting a wide range, from the 'Peek-A-Boo' set to kids old enough for Halloween chills and thrills",- Lynne Heffley of Parents Choice. In addition to children's music, Mayer has toured and recorded with Native American recording artist Bill Miller, appearing on the Today Show, Austin City Limits, the World Cafe and the recent PBS special "Songs of the Spirit". Miller and Mayer have opened for top acts including Willie Nelson, Tori Amos, Pearl Jam and the BoDeans."You Are The Rain", a song co-written by Mayer and Miller, was selected for the soundtrack of the Rick Schroder independent film "Black Cloud". Hans has performed and recorded with a number of Midwest rock and bluegrass bands.
