Urban crossover funk w/ a twist of reggae 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, WORLD: Reggae Details: JEBU is, at first glance, a freaky bunch of people. And truly, who can say freaky is bad. In fact, you can smell the funk on us! And dig the sound. Rub a dub style reggae, a hip o' the hop and some old r b flavor on a jazzy tip. It's flavorful recipe. Jed Keipp - layin' down the vocals. Josh Olsen - thumpin' da bass. D. Farnsworth - drum extraordinaire. Billy B - plays the saxophone. Dane Urry - just got a stanky clav on E-bay. Theyve stunk it up on Fox 13s Good Day Utah and also on the radio with KRCL 90.9FM. Weapons of Mass DysFUNKtion, released 6.6.06, is their 5th release to date. JEBU Weapons of Mass DysFunkTion by Bill Frost of SL Weekly "Ogden (Utah) strikes again: Jebus stone-cold funk-n-soul attack is even more in-the-pocket here than on 2004s already tight Phase 4, occasionally aspiring to classic Stevie Wonder heights of booty transcendence. If this doesnt move your ass, its dead. (JebuMusic.com)"
