Details: Kara Nomadica is a fusion of ancient and exotic instruments from the Middle-East, North Africa, and Australia. This CD captures a fresh new sound that is driven by traditional iqaat (rhythms) and maqamat (micro-tonal scales) of Turkey and the Arab world. The bands original compositions attain a truly unique synergy while also breathing new life into a select repertoire of traditional Middle-Eastern classics. Denver music reviewer John Zwick says, "Kara Nomadica is what happens when you bring together a mess of overqualified music geeks with Middle Eastern instruments you've never heard of it's a damn captivating sound." Kara Nomadica's wide range of instrumentation includes Arabic tabla, baglama saz, bendir, darbukka, davul, dholla, didjeridoo, fretless electric bass, muzzar, ney, oud, riq, shruti box, synthesizer, voice, and many others. Its members have well over a century of combined musical experience. People who are interested in Solace Omar Faruk Tekbilek Hossam Ramzy should consider this download.
