Since having my two daughters, Ive developed a passion for writing childrens music. As a dad, I enjoy the everyday moments with the kids. I enjoy singing fun songs when changing their diapers (listen to Poopy Doopy), or when giving them a bath (listen to Fun To Take A Bath). I figure, why not share this music with other parents and children. It took about 2 years to write and record Musical World Around You. My time was limited in the studio (as most parents would understand), so this album was produced in baby steps. Musical World Around You, represents my first few years as a dad. Being a parent means changing diapers, giving bathes, putting the kids in the car, teaching them about animals, and of course tickling them until they cant stand it. This is what the songs are about on this album. Oh and how can I forget Binky Bee. I couldnt have made this CD without my little sidekick, Binky Bee. Hes a cross between a bumblebee, a binky, and a fairy. Kids love this little guy. Make sure to listen to Binky Bees Theme Song. People who are interested in Sesame Street Dan Zanes They Might Be Giants should consider this download.
