----- BIO Poloneius Pluck hails as North Florida/South Georgia's Freestyle Champion and is the most requested emcee by local hip hop DJ's and on-air talent for exclusive freestyles and show intro's. The gifted rapper and animated performer has maintained a flourishing buzz by remaining undefeated in freestyle battles, being featured on local radio stations, and performing show openers for major label artists. Poloneius Pluck's rise started in 2002. Notoriety and credibility as an emcee was quickly established as he consistently won battle after battle and championship after championship in freestyle competitions. During the first quarter of 2004, he became the undisputed Freestyle King by taking home the God MC Award in a region-wide battle held at Floyd's Music in Tallahassee. Unlike other notable freestyle artists, Poloneius Pluck is also a song writer and lyricist. His music has received spins on commercial radio stations like WVHT Hot 105.7, WWLD Blazin'

102.3, and WBWT 100.7 The Beat. In addition to local support, Disc Makers' panel of industry judges and the editors of Billboard Magazine selected Pluck's music to be featured on the Independent Music World Series Southeast Heavy Hitters Compilation for 2003 and 2004. And most recently, Broadjam's Dirty South charts have seen Poloneius Pluck enter the Top 10. Poloneius Pluck undeniably stands apart from other artists not only due to his unique voice and star-quality stage presence, but also because of his quick, steady, and consistent rise in the industry. In the last year alone he has opened for Fat Joe, Trilleville, David Banner, T.I., as well as, Lloyd Banks and Young Buck of the G-Unit. He has already released his first self-titled LP and, in addition to critical acclaim, he is receiving steady sales to back the hype. Simply put, Poloneius Pluck represents the New South and is the future of hip hop.
