The nation's #1 most requested Barack Obama patriotic song, for the pop, dance, hip-hop and rap musical genres. CD-single includes a bonus track. 2 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, HIP-HOP/RAP: Political Rap Details: The Rock Obama (Mahalo America) CD-single is the #1 most requested Barack Obama patriotic song in the nation, and abroad. Performed by Scott Katsura, the international recording artist on Airtime Label based in Manhattan, this CD-single also features a bonus track: the award winning song, Caught Up In The Rainbow, taken from Scotts Aloha Miles Away CD-album. The connection between Barack Obama and Scott Katsura is they are both proud native sons of Hawaii, born and raised in tropical paradise. Scotts professional beginnings were ignited by veteran record producer Mark Kamins, the icon most known for discovering Madonna, and for signing her first recording contract with Sire Records. As he did with Madonna, Kamins first brought international visibility for Scott by producing his pop/dance CD album titled, Eruption. Dance tracks like Penetration scored high praise from critics like Larry Flick of Billboard Magazine. As Scott established himself within the music industry, demands for further recording projects transpired. The pop/adult contemporary CD album Supernatural was his sophomore effort, worthy of the title-track single Supernatural, Scotts first #1 song for four consecutive weeks in the U.K. The pop/dance/adult contemporary albums Family Jewel and Aloha Miles Away followed, these successes certified Scott with both a bankable name and a significant worldwide fan base. Scotts current CD release, his fifth, is titled Born This Way, another pop/adult contemporary album that is already receiving great recognition around the globe. Currently, Scott is promoting his newly released CD album, Born This Way, both domestically and overseas. In addition to his music, Scott is authoring two books that are in the making: Born This Way, an autobiography part memoir of Scotts musical journey and life experiences, and the other, Scotts introspective and provocative insight into our American culture, lifestyle and politics titled, So You Call Yourself An American? In support of his fellow native friend of Hawaii, the United States presidential runner Barack Obama, Scott has released the CD single titled Rock Obama (Mahalo America), the nations #1 most requested Barack Obama song. Rock Obama (Mahalo America) is also sourced in conjunction with Obama campaign ads that you will find throughout the airwaves on the internet. During Scott's vacation time, he spends quality moments with his friends, family and animals. He replenishes in songwriting, gardening, cooking and interior designing. He remains driven by supporting various charity events, usually for kids, elders and animals. In celebration of his Hawaiian heritage, Scott is dedicated as the annual core emcee and performer for the Fran Price Hula Show Extravaganza in Detroit, Michigan. Scott most admires individuals who are secure with themselves, and least desires people who mistaken kindness for stupidity. His greatest goal is to help people find the human characteristics that comprises us all, while maintaining the ability to think, act and speak as unique individuals with our own hearts, minds and talents. People who are interested in Justin Timberlake Kanye West Chris Brown should consider this download.
