Stanley Clarke meets John Prine and creates some folk/rock/jazz. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Trailer Park Diaries is the result of two songwriters from diverse backgrounds combining their talents. Robert Bruce Swanson is a six-string bass player from the genre of jazz with an admiration towards the works of Jaco Pastorius and Stanley Clarke. Coming from another direction is Tom Scharf, a singer and guitarist with a love of folk music, particularly the works of John Prine. Tom and Bruce have a shared admiration for anything by Tom Waits so with that as a basis, they decided to collaborate and the result is the folk/rock/jazz music of Trailer Park Diaries with stories about americana. IMPORTANT NOTICE: All songs are from the 2006 re-master and are only available as digital downloads. There are only a few of the original '93 CDs left and they do not include the tracks of Baby Flew Out With The Bath and Do The Rudy. Robert Bruce Swanson: music, bass, keyboards, drum programming Tom Scharf: lyrics, vocals, acoustic guitar Collin MacCallister: electric guitar Background Vocals: Lynne Scholfield, Marlene MacCallister, George Zepernick
