Therefore, its true to say that Ulises incites inspiration for accomplishing so much at such a young age while yet remaining true to himself and those he loves. One day, Id love to win a Billboard Award, an AMA, and a Grammy, but the most gratifying award I could receive- knowing that my music has touched someones life. I am extremely proud and honored to finally be exposing Projection Beautiful to the world. Throughout this process, Ive become a wiser musician and matured more. There is still so much I want to do, and I know that this is only the beginning. I didnt choose music; music chose me. Therefore, I have the responsibility to positively influence peoples lives, to be a leader, to open up doors, to perform all over the world, to be accepted, to bring about change, to break down any barriers, to be. One can dream, one can try, but its ultimately up to one to make it come to life; I will! This compilation of Hip-Hop/R&B definitely has a beautiful projection.

Dance to the songs, sing to the lyrics, and relax to the harmonies while the CD plays. Be one of the first people to discover his talent. A bright future awaits him.
