Details: In France, where she lives, Audren is well known for her young adults -best sellers- novels. She is also the original soundtracks author of a French movie (Frankie) starring Diane Kruger and has written many songs for different artists including Chris Rime (her partner and music producer). Out of France, no gamer cant forget the song she performed in the video game "Darkstone"(1 million items sold). The Darkstone will shine created an enormous buzz worldwide. Many bands are still playing it now. Unfortunately, Audren kept her fans disappointed and demanding for years as she suddenly disappeared from the music world. She was very sick with Lyme disease and could only concentrate on her writing as singing had became impossible. 2009 : Audren is back in music! Back from hell she says with a shy and victorious smile as she is not totally cured but strong enough to sing again. She has saved enough energy to record her new album Healing blue. The subtitle of this CD could be Carpe diem or Dont worry, be happy even if the Blues in Audrens voice tells you that nothing is always so easy. There is so much life in her tunes that youll certainly become addicted. Healing blue is the kind of Pop-Soul-Jazz youll definitely need after a big hard day, just to take it easy, the kind of lyrics that will urge you to see the world differently. Audrens musicians, who have also played with Joe Zawinul, Paul Simon, Womack Womack, Jeff Beck, Cline Dion, Jennifer Batten or Bobby McFerrin, combine their great talents to highlight Audrens warm and powerful voice.
