A Real-life Utilities Meter Reader uses blues, country, other musical comedy to tell of "Dog Days" on his route. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Ouch! The dogs Have Bill singin' the Dog-Bitten Blues on his town country utilities meter reading Route. This real-life Meter Reader is a 20-year veteran of "Meter- Reader- Dog- Bites" as well as a versatile talented musician. He uses clean humor a variety of musical styles to weave his side-splitting stories from encounters with the canines that stand between him and the electric meters that his boss tells him to read "at all cost". From the crunching blues guitar verse- by- verse punch lines in Dog- Bitten Blues to the country music flavored title song; to his "James Brown Soul" type beat In his Pit Bull song, this CD was created to create a thousand laughs. Get your share of these laughs- get "My Dog Don't Bite!" (That's what they all say)! Power vocalist, John "Teddy J" Jones is #2 vocalist Co-Producer of this hilarious recording. Note: Volume 2 is now completed and will soon be available. (It's just as funny!) Note #2: Bill has a live "dog bite" show that is a "howl"! Book him now!
