"...he sounds like the lovechild of Gram Parsons and Keith Richards"...Carla Duriyea, "Midnight Rambler"
12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: "Bill Parker's guitar echoes the guitars of Jimmie Rodgers and Keith Richards; its accompaniment is as appropriate, as suitable, as that of the great blues singers. His lyrics are priceless, timeless. "The music, in its directness, its total lack of irony, its -- alarming? -- sincerity, makes immediate demands. It's not just sittin' on the back porch pickin'. No, it's more like being in an operating room where a surgeon is using a guitar to look into the heart. His and yours. Parker is one of the heavies; if he were a jeweler, he'd be on 10th Street." -- Stanley Booth, author of "The True Adventures of The Rolling Stones",
