This is old stuff of ours that Yoav Kutner Squirreled away in the late seventies. This is where it all almost started. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: None of these recordings would exist had they not been squirreled away by Yoav Kutner. This is all Yoav's fault. I was drunk. Yoav is always a designated driver. Yoav is the best. The Core of this group was Violinist Tony Brower, Vocalist Karen Maseng and myself. Within a space of 3 years I managed to get myself: drafted; wounded; transfered to IDF Radio; married; have my own weekly spot in an otherwise unblemished radio show; sign a terrible 6 year contract with a major recording lable that took all and gave nothing and got my self sort of shelved for most of the eighties. Other people seem to have been making money off of these songs for thirty-some years now. Dead people are making more money with my music than I am. How sad is that? So kids, What have we learned here today? "Sign here this is only a formality" is the verbal equivalent of a long drawn out proctological exam in any language. This is history. You ain't seen nothing yet. Peace, Danny Dworsky
