Genevieve Brown of Joliet, IL. Together they form the gospel duo known as EKKLESIA (ee-clay-see-ah), a Greek word which means Called Out. They have recently released their debut CD entitled Whatcha Waitin 4? Elder Stephen Evans is a licensed and ordained minister under the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship. When hes not aiding his Pastor, the Reverend Lester Brown, of Good Samaritan Ministries, hes singing. Over the years, his singing career has allowed him the experience of performing with many different groups, both secular and Christian. Elder Evans voice has been compared to such music giants as Isaac Hayes and Barry White. However, his love for gospel music has long since removed him from the world of secular music. Gospel music to him is not just musicit is ministry. It speaks to peoples souls and encourages, heals and strengthens them. He loves the Lord, and has been anointed to write and to sing for his Glory. Minister David Range treasures two things: the love of the Lord and music. Minister Range took his talent to the community through schools, plays and radio. Compared to such musical giants as Phillip Bailey and Smokey Robinson, Ranges voice reaches beyond the secular and into the world where he can share his life experiences with the hearts and ears of others. The CD has received rave reviews, as well as much radio air play. It is the duos desire to take their music to the next level, where it reaches the masses on a National and International level. With the support of their family, supporters and well wishers throughout the State of Illinois, theyre poised to make an impact on the Gospel Music Industry.
