The consummate Spoken Word artist, with a truly engaging, story-telling style - poems that are captivating, evoking familiar imagery to which everyone will relate. 14 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: With Music, SPOKEN WORD: Poetry Details: INDIGO - Self-named and self-proclaimed poet, An Oakland, California original A Single Parent A Christian A Spoken Word Poet I first took the mic at the Jahava House in Oakland, California the summer of 2001. The first poem I ever read in public was Single Mother, which is now my signature piece. I can still hear the applause from that night six years ago. It was on from that day, I became a regular at the Jahava House, and many of the San Francisco Bay Area poetry venues, and eventually becoming one-third of a hosting trio of The Poetic Groove, a Friday night poetry venue. My poetic inspiration comes from the world around me, things I see and feel. And some of my poetry is just made up from my imagination. I call my style of poetry free verse and most of my pieces are mini short stories. The Emerging Butterfly has been a long awaited dream, a labor of love, and a bit of a legacy for those that I love.
