American Songbook in both traditional and jazz styles--plus an original pop hit. 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: It is enlightening to read so many of the CD Baby webpages that tell you in words how amazing, compelling, and moving the artist's recording is when all you have to do is click on a soundfile to actually hear a sample and decide for yourself. So that is what we propose to you now. If you are into real jazz, try "Round About Midnight", "Love for Sale", or the swinging "I Love Being Here With You". For "smoother" jazz, try the haunting "It's a Lazy Afternoon". Beatles fan? You've never heard "Ticket to Ride" like this. "Folks Who Live on the Hill" is a sweet ballad with acoustic guitar and 'cello. We even sneaked in an original in the pop idiom, "The Secret of a Wish". Want to know more about Joyce? Visit joycelyonsfor a bio of sorts, information about upcoming gigs (wait 'til you see and hear Joyce in person!), and some comments from critics and radio DJs. Produced by Grammy Award voter Doug Shear, with Music Direction and arrangements by Tony Bennett's stellar musical director Lee Musiker and engineered by the legendary Jim Czak of Nola Studios, NYC; "Sooner or Later" is that rarity, an independent CD with major label production values and personnel. We hope you will experience it in its entirety and share it with your friends.
