Stints in bands in San Francisco had brought them within earshot of one another's style and they forged a collaboration that has evolved over the last decade in the forms of live bands, sound installations, and film scores. Kelly and David as the Twilight Auguries blends their experience into a group of eleven unique songs of longing and loss. In these eleven songs beauty reveals itself in a variety of disguises. They have tea with a mouse, witness a standoff between a wolf and a coyote, learn spells from a shapeshifter and a sometimes lover reveals himself to them as the Devil.
