fiery guitar playing and soulful vocals, over grooves that won't let you go. 5 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Funky Blues, ROCK: Americana Details: All Caught Up is the debut solo CD project from Boston-based singer/songwriter Sam Hooper. Known in New England blues circles as former lead guitarist of the Vykk Vox and Angela McClenton bands, Hooper's playing has been praised as "fiery" and "transcending into something nearly spiritual." An alumnus of both the Berklee and the University of Miami Schools of Music, he was a winner of 5 Berklee songwriting competitions. He has also toured the United States, Japan, Switzerland and China. On this 5 song EP, Hooper's vocals, (which have been compared to Robert Cray or Bobby Bland) and strong songwriting step up to share the spotlight with some burnin' guitar playing. From the pop-tinged title track to the funky "I Won't Be Your Fool," Hooper displays a confident versatility that is contemporary, yet rooted in rhythm blues. Hooper co-produced the EP in Nashville with engineer and longtime friend Jim Lightman. Before opening New Reflections studios in Nashville two years ago, Lightman was known in Boston for his engineering with artists like Peter Wolf and Nuno Bettencourt. Take a listen and you'll be All Caught Up in this exciting debut from Sam Hooper!
