The art belongs to Patti Sevensma. It is a great eye to catch the color of a sunset and talent. Please respect the art work and if you wish to contact her on the art she would be welcome inquiries. Of course these weren't all my writings...I had major assist from artist inside Coupe Studios. And the credit of composer, although I share a credit, goes to my friend Kip Kuepper. The real musical brainchild to this sound is all Kip. Yet there are a host of talent on these tracks worth mentioning as I come back to this page and rightfully credit the remaining musical talent. In the meantime, I dedicate to Risha and Dale Bradshaw the tune Spiritual Water. Although the lyrics and tune belong to Kip Kuepper/Greg Stouffer and John Radebaugh on guitar. My only contribution is the concept and of course the dedication. I just had a great talk with Stephanie Margheim and her celebrated daughter. When a parent can be there and care as Stephanie has for her daughter and give the kind of lift to keep her daughter going to school and in the struggle to learn and not quite...says it all. I dedicate The Lonely Venturer to her and her daughter Faith.
The Lonely Venturer is a tune that Kip Kuepper took to the next level with assist from Patrick Cullie and Nelson Rangel. I got in on this one and assisted in co-writing the lyrics. Great tune...hope you get out of it what the rest of us did in creating it. We had fun.
