Forget the twang, Twin Vision has an extremely dynamic new pop country sound. Upbeat, catchy, meaningful and just plain fun music - you'll be singing along in no time. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Progressive Country, POP: Pop Show all album songs: Music is the Language Songs Details: Raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Keith and Kevin Pierce are identical twins who took a bold step into the music world with a new and truly unique sound. Their first CD, 'Love Will Go Round' is an irresistible collection of original songs independently produced, recorded, mixed and mastered in Philadelphia in 1997. Their more recent CD, 'Music is the Language' was produced and recorded in Nashville, TN. This exciting remake of many of the songs from their first CD, is combined with brand new cuts and comes alive with a country cross-over flare. Be prepared to sing along because one listen and you will not be able to get enough of these meaningful lyrics and catchy melodies. Keith is the songwriter, having written all of the lyrics and eighty percent of the music. His partner and musical genius, Michael Richards not only co-wrote two of the songs, but he helped bring all the songs to life with his amazing talent to produce and arrange. Keith is a former MervTone (Merv Griffin back-up singer). He has shared the stage with such stars as Tony Bennett, the Pointer Sisters, Margaret Whiting, Patti Paige and even Vanna White at the Tenth Anniversary Celebration of the Wheel of Fortune. Since 1980, from Philadelphia and Washington, D.C. to Texas and Los Angeles, Keith has performed professionally in clubs, bands, musicals and variety shows. He began singing at the age of 14 for the Valley Forge Military Academy and College Choir/Glee Club. At nineteen he made his nightclub debut at the "Sting" in Valley Forge, Pa. He went on to graduate from LaSalle University where he sang for the LaSalle Singers and placed second in the LaSalle Talent Search. Commissioned as a U.S. Army Second Lieutenant in 1984, Keith served four years of active duty at Fort Bliss, Texas where he performed in the Soldier's Chorus, The Bar-B-Ques, (Barber Shop Quartet)

and "Showtime USA" -- a musical variety revue. In 1986 he won first place in the All-Army Talent Search. While in Texas, he landed roles in "Hello Dolly", "Damn Yankees" and the leading role in "Purlie", at the Moulin Rouge Dinner Theater in El Paso. Keith later worked as a performer, manager and entertainment captain aboard The Spirit of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, part of a fleet of dinner cruise ships. He continued singing by becoming Kevin's partner as a singing DJ in the Pierce Entertainment Company (pierceentertainment.com). Providing a unique combination of live vocal entertainment and professional disc jockey services, the Pierce Entertainment Company has grown to a team of nine singing disc jockeys who perform weekly at weddings, parties and a wide variety of special events. He has since had the distinct privilege of singing in the Pennsylvania Governor's Mansion on several occasions to include an evening with Governor Rendell and the French Ambassador. A father of three, Keith currently serves as Senior Vice President of MicroSociety, Inc., a Philadelphia-based non-profit educational services organization. _____ Kevin is also a graduate of Valley Forge Military Academy College. He went on to earn his Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Criminal Justice from Villanova University. In 1985 Kevin became a Pennsylvania State Trooper and served as a member of the Pennsylvania State Police Ceremonial Unit as a Ceremonial Vocalist until he retired in 2006 as a Lieutenant and Station Commander. As a Ceremonial Vocalist, Kevin performed the National Anthem and other patriotic songs for State Police ceremonies and various other political and official ceremonies. He has had the distinct honor and pleasure of singing for Governors Ed Rendell, Mark Schweiker, Tom Ridge and Dick Thornburgh on several occasions, including Governor Schweiker's inauguration. During the 2000 election, Kevin sang for UN Ambassador Alan Keys, second Lady Mrs. Dick Cheney and for Presidential Candidate George Bush during his visit to West Chester University. Kevin also performed for Vice President Dick Cheney, former New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani and many others. In May of 2004 Kevin had the pleasure of sharing the stage with Patti LaBelle and President George Bush while singing a patriotic tribute at the annual National Law Enforcement Memorial Service held on the front lawn of the US Capitol in Washington D.C. In August of 2002, Kevin performed the National Anthem at both the opening game and the Final Championship game of the 2002 Little League World Series, televised nationally on ESPN2 and ABC. He also performed the National Anthem for NASCAR's Pennsylvania 500 and the Pocono 500 at the Pocono Raceway, aired live July 2003 and August 2004. Other TV appearances include singing his most requested song, "God Bless The USA", for the 2003 Independence Day Welcome America Celebration in front of the Philadelphia Museum of Art and for the annual Media Veteran's Day Parade. Kevin believes his vocal talent is a gift from above and has a great love for singing Gospel Music. He has recorded a Gospel CD and has performed locally at several churches throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Tags: pop
