Real music for kid's that won't drive parents crazy. Comes in brand new "Ejector" style case. Pull the trigger and the disc "pops" out into your hand. Your kids will love it! "Kid at Heart" is the 2005 follow up record to Victor Johnson's award winning "Country Blues for Kids." It contains 16 tracks of original and traditional music and stories for the young and young at heart. This sophomore effort includes solo voice and guitar as well as several ensembles from some of the finest acoustic musicians in the west. "Kid at Heart" will sure to be a hit with the whole family. Victor is one of the premier children's music performers in the west and "Kid at Heart" gives a peek into why Victor's shows are the hippest and most fun kid shows around. Featured musicians on "Kid at Heart" include legendary bay area jazz man Tony Marcus on Violin, Trail Band music director and composer Cal Scott on Cornet, former Joe Ely guitarist Rick Hulett on bass, Dennis Williams on Clarinet, British Hawaiian Slide sensation Ben Bonham, Mandolin virtuoso Kerry Williams and percussionist Steve McLennon. Victor is a musician, writer, and producer hailing from the Columbia River Gorge of the Pacific Northwest. His first children's CD "Country Blues for Kids" won a 2004 Parents' Choice award and was voted Best Record for Preschoolers by the Children's Music Web. In the same year Victor also won Best New Artist for Preschoolers by the CMW. In 2004 Victor represented the Cascade Blues Assn. in Memphis for the International Blues Challenge. Victor performs extensively in the Northwest at festivals, schools and children's hospitals. For more information visit victorjohnson.com
