Details: Born July 22, 1982 a new Gifted street guru was born. At the age of 3yrs, his parents where divorced which later on led him to being raised in many neighborhoods of Atlanta such as Perry Homes, Hollywood Court, Techwood, and a few others, he declared the "Atl" was his home for life. Living a drug stricken life with his mother as an abuser, and his father none present, his paths were unclear and dim with light. He was tough, opinionated and as different from everyone around him as can be, Doing things that others only wondered about, he declared that he would overcome their differences, and to turn his group of young hostile connections, into champions. He learned the streets and carried it with him, and when forced to move to smaller Tifton, GA (T-town), he left school for a chance to move on to Jacksonville, FL (Bang'emville a.k.a J-Ville) of Duval County. Unlike many in High School, he wasnt one of those superficial skirt chasers like others he grew up with, but the code of the streets he followed on to adult hood. Hes a persuasive writer when it comes to women, but with him modern day romance will never be the same. Often he ran into two-bit hustlers and deadly complications that couldve ruin him for good, but still he maintained in his nonstop struggle for survival. He always seemed to be triumphant, because he was full of soul and spirit. His strong overwhelming desire for the streets helped discover that you cant underestimate the power of them, and that it takes more than talent to make it in the streets (Everyday is a lesson -Wicked Wix). Known for being a slacker with a talent for botany, music, and a knack for staying far away from school, He is an extraordinary unsigned solo artist, and a heartfelt tribute to the Men and women who are living the street life. Welcomed back home by fellow Georgians, He also sends shout outs to all of his family, fans, and acquaintances acquired through his journey. "Being a Georidian(Georgian/Floridian) is not as easy as representing one's city and state" he say's, but as so with T.I., he rep's the South Eastern states as if it's his city, state, country, and home!
