Original acoustic music with folk instruments and lyrics featuring off the beaten path song subjects. Featured on WXPN in Philadelphia and WPRB in Princeton. 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Here We Go Again features nine original songs, performed in a stripped-down style utilizing guitar, banjo, mandolin and other acoustic instruments. Song topics range from growing up to traveling in time and to the moon, walking alone through the streets of NYC, playing in a schoolyard and burning all of your money in a Money Burning Machine (everybody's got one). The original cover art alone makes Here We Go Again a great addition to your CD collection with attitude that is part Dr. Seuss and part Zap Comics. Songs from "Here We Go Again" have been featured on WXPN in Philadelphia, WPRB in Princeton, KJHK at the University of Kansas, KASU at the University of Arkansas and several other college stations. Will Rhodin is also the principal songwriter in the Bucks County, PA, based band The Wilverines. The Wilverines' CD "Into the World Unknown" can also be purchased CDBaby. The Wilverines' new song, "Might Makes Right", was featured for the month of June 2004 on the Lord Litter Radio Show, broadcast to the world from Berlin, Germany. An MP3 of this song can be heard in its entirely on the Wilverines' web site at wilverines.com.
