Arquito Desmunde recalls the "gift" he received on his thirty fifth birthday when he is given an old diary to read. While reading it terrifying memories of a series of brutal and still unsolved murders come flooding back to his mind, as well as a killer he thought he knew. He is tortured and tormented by the demonic spirit of a long dead murderer for three, long years. Yet, this terrible, frightening, monstrous, murderous spirit was someone he never really knew at all. An unholy terror from the past, but not his past, that would haunt him in his future.
