Called the darling of the NW Americana scene by the Village Voice, presents her third album of stellar storytelling and soul stirring vocals, alive with stories. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, FOLK: Alternative Folk Details: Ashleigh Flynn, Portland, Oregons Americana songstress, presents her third album, American Dream, on Home Perm Records. This album, of emotional depth and stellar storytelling, is sure to continue her trajectory of national acclaim and impressive sales. Produced at Mississippi Studios, shes joined by some of Portlands finest musicians: Chris Funk, The Decemberists; Phil Baker, Pink Martini; Jim Brunberg, Boxset; Analisa Tornfelt, Bearfoot Bluegrass; David Gerow, Sneakin Out; and Gregg Williams. From Kentucky, Ashleigh Flynn grew up foot stomping along the Ohio River as the steamboats and barges made their way to the muddy Mississippi. An electrifying performer blessed with unbridled charisma, Flynn has released two previous full-length studio efforts, Chokecherry (2002) and Ashleigh Flynn, self-titled (1999). The Village Voice regards Ashleigh as A darling of the NW Americana scene, hailing Chokecherry, . . . Flynn adds a smoky soulful voice . . . marrying styles such as bluegrass to pop. In an effort to capture the energy of a live show, Flynn released Sneakin Out with Ashleigh Flynn in late 2005, a live Mississippi Studios recording with Portlands renowned alternative bluegrass band, Sneakin Out, and featuring national songstress Tracy Grammer. On American Dream, listeners join Flynn in exploring profound questions about the historical and political consequences of manifest destiny. The album is alive with stories about down-and-outers, young and old, all still hopeful, as is Flynn, that they can achieve the American Dream. Beguiling and wise, Flynnns musical poetry muses on the expansive American Dream. People who are interested in Ryan Adams Patty Griffin KT Tunstall should consider this download.
