Second album of cinematic instrumentals. "Serene, abstract, pulsating. Highly recommended." - Readings Monthly. For lovers of Boards of Canada, Tortoise, Susumu Yokota 12 MP3 Songs

ELECTRONIC: Ambient, POP: with Electronic Production Details: 'Bogenschutzer' is electronic composer/musician Matt Archer. "Simple City" is his second full length album, following the 2005 self-titled release "Bogenschutzer". "Serene, abstract, pulsating even quirky are a few words that come to mind when describing the second recording from Melbourne composer Matt Archer aka. Bogenschutzer. From the opening track "The Arrival", a beautiful ambient work with a wonderful bassline, he never lets the music just roll along, there is always something happening, and on each subsequent listening you will constantly discover new sounds. For this reviewer I heard elements of rock music ("Freeway Design" and "Plucked") and a kind of electronic folk music ("Very Serious Men" and "Little Fruits") but I don't really want to single out any particular tracks as every track has something to offer. A work of great imagination. Highly recommended. " - Phil Richards (Readings Monthly, Australia) For lovers of Boards of Canada, Tortoise Susumu Yokota, Bogenschutzer seamlessly blends ambient beat driven works for a cinematic musical journey. The sounds are put together at DesTone studio, a collection of keyboards, piano, computers, percussive toy instruments, in Melbourne, Australia. Praise for "Bogenschutzer" (2005): "...one of the biggest surprises for me, this self titled album is pure gold." - Evan Carr, Arrhythmia PBS 106.7FM "A stellar recorded debut...this record washes over you" - Richard Mohr, Readings Monthly, Australia
