Take a voice that makes you feel good, add some bold new melodies, sprinkle in some original story-telling, stir well with exotic instrumentation and passion. Heat until the suspense is sizzling. Pop, rock, Calypso, blues and thrills. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, POP: 70's Pop Details: David Rubin is a Montreal born singer songwriter with a distinct velvety voice, capable of singing songs in any musical genre. Coming from a family of musicians, David's father was a singer in big band The Heat Waves and so impressive that Cab Calloway asked him to join him on tour. Citing influences such as Frank Sinatra, Roy Orbison, Marty Robbins to the Rolling Stones, David excels in many musical genres. As a child, David was already entertaining audiences on seventeen episodes of Screen Gems Little People hosted by Jack Barry, quiz show host of Twenty One as told in the movie Quiz Show. As a teenager David abandoned the spotlight for day jobs. No longer able to ignore his true calling for music, David began taking voice lessons and writing his own songs. Prolific and passionate about his songwriting, David has written more than eighty songs in only four years. David independently produces his music with Satellite studios in Montreal resulting in his first album Fantastica, the country western album Dave's Country, the eclectic Ultra Songs, the pop-rock album When and David's latest album One Day, which features 17 strong thrilling tracks. David's songs have received airplay in America, Australia, New Zealand, Scotland, Sweden, Canada and Europe. He is currently working on his sixth album, which is due for release in 2006. FLASH! Update: David has completed his sixth album; Secret Agent. 14 original songs. Available now right here at CD Baby.
