Austin Tacious Jazz/Rock original songwriting featuring Texas' premier musicians and panultimate production. 15 MP3 Songs BLUES: Jazzy Blues, ROCK: Americana Details: Louisiana born, Texas raised songwriter brings together a blazing passion for musical expression with some of the finest musicians assembled for the task. A deep influence from the jazz masters to the legends of rock have continued to meld the continuing persuit of purity and expression in Edgar Lacey music. A strong spiritual connection weaves the songs together on this recording. Each musician has reached deep into his soul to render these songs their special qualities. My family has been extremely supportive throughout the years and I dedicate this recording to them, especially my wife Nicole, who has sacrificed much and encouraged me to follow my dreams in the face of all adversity. My Cajun Grandmother, Hortense, impressed upon me in my youth that every day is important. "Live to give and share what you've been blessed wit', boy." I take this with me wherever I go and willingly share when I arrive. There is no better job in life than making music from the heart.
