Details: Franz Fjodor is the pseudonym of Dutch writer and musician Wouter Jaspers (Deurne, 1986). As Franz Fjodor, Jaspers flirts with The Dark; with selfmade instruments he creates pieces of soundart in between droning soundscapes, depressed noise and dark folk. His style varies to his mood: from psycho chants to punkscreams, from guitar oriented music to fieldrecordings. Over the last years, Wouter played over 160 shows all over Europe, he toured in Russia and released several records on his label Vatican Analog from Tilburg, Netherlands. Besides this he has been active working on his new book, to be released in the summer of 2008. Besides his Franz Fjodor project Jaspers is also part of Meldy Peaches and 4daladiez, both featured projects on Vatican Analog. He also released cds/tapes and several tracks on TIBproductions (NO), Kourlyk Records (BE), Black Syndicate (NL), Goldsoundz (NO), Dirty Demos (UK), zeromoon (US) and Emerson, Lake and Headache (RU). Later this year a remix LP of "Exhibition" will be released with remixes by John Wiese, Sudden Infant, Violet, Staplerfahrer and others. To promote these albums he will tour the United States and Europe.
