Heart-touching, worshipful gospel music with deep and poignant lyrics, lovely melodies. You will love her music. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Jacque Darragh is a certified spiritual director and has been in active ministry as a retreat leader, parish music director, workshop facilitator and pastoral musician for over twenty-five years. Jacque writes music from the psalms, scriptures, from reflections from saints and from her own original music. She has produced 6 albums of original music, four of which are featured on her website. One of Jacque's favorite activities is designing and leading retreats for folks of all ages and stages, and she brings her gifts of humor, wit, and storytelling to help retreatants find refreshment and spiritual renewal. Jacque works as a Clinical Nutritionist in private practice with her husband, Thomas, a Doctor of Chiropractic. Thomas and Jacque enjoy spending time with family. Their son, Henry, has a music major at the University of Houston, and is a very talented jazz piano and trombone player, songwriter and composer. He sings on lead vocals and backing vocals on some of Jacque's albums. He has an eight-year-old daughter, Hailey. Son-in-law Jaime Licon teaches at LaPorte High School, and the Darragh's daughter, Molly is a stay-at-home mom to their daughter Lailah and new baby due in August 2007.
