Harris was born December 25, 1956. She resides in Lanham, Md with her husband and two sons. She began her singing career at the age of 13, singing in area talent shows, with local groups, and travelling with the DC Showmobile. At age 17 she made her first live television appearance on the late Peete Green show performing with her local band. Years later, along with a new group, she won 1st place in the DC Talent Search at Constitution Hall, in Washington, DC. Jeanette also performed with a group called Rebirth in Tokyo, Japan for two months in 1977 after attending Howard University for two years. She also toured as a background singer with local recording artist Gayle Adams in the 80s. In 1988, Jeanette performed a live show with Peabo Bryson, as his background vocalist. In the early 90s she began performing locally once again. Jeanettes singing career had been plagued with substance and alcohol abuse. She would not realize this to be a problem until it had become too late with the abuse of crack cocaine. Jeanettes husband prayed fervently for her the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much (James 5:16). As a result of prayer and attending a drug ministry at her church, she became victorious, but not without a price. Sin is pleasurable, for a season (Heb. 11:25). Nevertheless, what the devil meant for evil, God has turned it around for her good. I know the thoughts I think towards you, thoughts of peace and not of evil to give you an expected end (Jeremiah 29:11). Jeanette and her family are members of Evangel Cathedral, in Upper Marlboro, Maryland. She is very active in prison ministries, street crusades, and correctional facilities. Her ministry is International and has taken her as far as Switzerland and Germany. Only what we do for God will last
