Presented with the urgency of a firecracker, hear the heartwarming collision of melody, emotion, imagination and wit. 9 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: A heartwarming collision of expression, melody and wit, only Jim Bianco can do what Jim Bianco does. It's been said that if Randy Newman and Paul McCartney were to meet at a diner owned by Tom Waits, they would unanimously agree to play Bianco's music on the tableside midget-jukebox. A two-year resident of the trendy desert known as Los Angeles and now living in the bowels of Hollywood, Jim is focused on writing songs you never knew you knew, or, moreover, songs you know by heart, but never heard before. Performing with the urgency of a firecracker and the intensity of an oncoming train while still maintaining his humor and sincerity, the delivery of Jim's music leaves the listener if not with a celebratory smile on their face, than with the feeling of being comfortably overwhelmed. His self-produced self-released CD "Well Within Reason" is an undeniable exercise in imagination, humor, depth and musicality. It's a true representation of his love for all styles of music, from folk to be-bop to pop to James Brown, but is still held together concretely by his voice, his topic matter and his unique sense of blending the real old with the brand new. It is tangible proof that only Jim Bianco can do what Jim Bianco does. Contact: 323 960 2504 jimbianco@hotmail.com jimbianco.com
