Traditional and Kansas City Style Blues with a touch of Jazz 9 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Blues Vocals,

BLUES: Rockin' Blues Details: Jim La Forte(58) has been a presence on the Kansas City music scene since 1961. He started out at age thirteen, singing at school dances and sock hops. By the time he was fifteen, he was working local night clubs. At 21 he hit the road, playing all over the U.S., as well as Canada and Mexico. Jim has shared billing with jazz legend Kevin Mahogany, Bloodstone, Wayne Cochran and Albert King. He was also in one of the featured acts for the Grand Re-opening of Kansas Citys historic 18th and Vine District in 1999. Members of Jims bands have gone on to play with Bill Chase, Fleetwood Mac, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Al Stewart and Ray Manzarek of the Doors. These days he again makes his home in K.C. Jim plays in several venues each week and several charties each year, including those for battered women and children and healthcare for the indigent. The Kansas City Blues Societys BLUES NEWS describes him as KCs Powerful Blues Shouter. CATFISH PIZZA BREAKFAST Released 2006 Along with Jim, you will hear 26 of Kansas Citys finest musicians and singers.
