Acoustic Folk blues, reminiscent of 70's folkies Joni Mitchell and Joan Baez 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: "Kathy writes songs that people who know her hope they've written about them...and people who don't know her wish she HAD written about them." Mark Snow WOJB-FM Kathy's music is a combination of classically trained vocals, self-taught guitar and a passion for poetry. Her performances have earned her accolades including "Best Acoustic Performer" by the Fort Lauderdale paper, City Link and "Best Acoustic Blues Duo" (with former partner, John "the cop" Eischen) by Miami New Times. She has also showcased on Songwriters Night at Nashville's infamous Bluebird Caf in addition to several music conferences including The Philadelphia Music Conference, NEMO (Boston), NXNE (Toronto) and the Riverwalk Blues Festival. Her music can be heard on stations across the country from WLRN in Miami to KCLA in California and internationally in Berlin, Australia and the UK. She has also been the opening act for MCA recording artists, The Mavericks, Michelle Shocked, Roger McGuinn and Marilyn Manson. Adding to her discography, which already includes Speaking Guillotine, Sympathetic Coffee, 10 Doors Down and the cassette Anamorphosis, Kathy is currently recording her fourth CD. You can also hear her music on The Third Bent Pussycat Christmas Compilation, A Tribute to George Harrison and her vocals on Mortal Engines, Kevin Mcleod, Traildust and Grunt Bone CD's. Since being signed to Bent Pussycat Records, Fleischmann has just released her fourth CD; Unresolved - a collection of 13 new songs. She performs regularly in New York and the tri-state area and currently resides with her 19 lb cat, Aretha. (Named after the Queen of Soul)
