

Mp3 Kitty Donohoe - Northern Border

Mature, strong songwriting with Irish overtones elements of bluesy folk. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Northern Border is my 4th songwriter CD (not including an all-Michigan family project). The title has more to do with a feel than an actual songwriting theme. Living a stones throw from the Canadian border, my music is strongly inflected with the accordions, fiddles, and pipes that are common sounds in their music, as well as being an inherent sound from my Irish heritage. Theres a moodiness sometimes, questioning, exuberance, earthiness...all of the elements that define us as humans! I have some great guest artists on this release, such as Jan Krist and Claudia Schmidt, Tyler Duncan, Jeff Taylor and others. Not to mention David Mosher, producer, friend, and uber-instrumentalist. Only one review so far, but its a goodie! Donohoes lyric-writing is at a new level. Northern Border hums with the themes of maturity and celebration, especially the sweet October of the year and of our lives, and an appreciation for the short season of light we have here at the northern border. ...[includes] a notable new version of There Are No Words, the song she wrote on September 11, 2001. If voices are weapons, Donohoe commands a battleship - she sings not just with power but with authority, and the hair-raising, octave-jumping crescendo at the songs end [100 Chance of the Blues] is a high point.
