Bouncy, jazzy, singable melodies have already made this CD many kids' favorite, and grown-ups like it, too. 17 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: "Make it a Song, Song, Song" is Liz Buchanan's great collection of original tunes and classic favorites. Children will love to boogie to the jazz beat of "Antelope Dance" and sing with familiar tunes such as "If you're happy and you know it, clap your hands" and "The Lion Sleeps Tonight." There's a terrific new train song, "Chugga Chugga Ding Ding," and parents will love the updates of camp tunes such as "Boom Dee Ah Dah." Liz has lots of friends playing and singing with her on the album, including a jazz band, flute and mandolin, and a whole gang of kids! A singer, guitarist and songwriter, Liz has led sing-along programs for young children in the public libraries in Arlington, Massachusetts, and surrounding towns for five years, as well as singing programs in pre-schools and elementary school classes. In 2001, she was named a finalist for Best New Artist for Young Children by the Children's Music Web organization. Liz is also a fiction writer, and is working on America's answer to the Harry Potter craze. Here's what others have to say: "Liz's CD is WONDERFUL! My five-year-old and I put it on the other day and we both loved it. Liz has a great voice!" -Elizabeth Greenbaum, Articulture, Minneapolis, MN "I enjoyed the train harmonies on "Chugga Chugga Ding Ding" and I especially enjoyed "Boom De Ah Dah." The children's voices were wonderful!" -Duncan Wells, Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia "We are constantly humming Liz's tunes. It's a great collection." -Tina Egan, East Greenwich, RI "This is our girls' favorite CD. When we need to hurry them out the door in the morning, we promise they'll get to hear Liz in the car!" - Ken Kimmel, Newton, MA
