

Mp3 Marni Nixon - My Christmas Card To You

DOWNLOAD HERE

A legendary singer performs this musical Christmas card with its message of peace, for you to sign and send to one you love--whether he or she is in the armed forces halfway around the world, or right around the block. 1 MP3 Songs in this album (3:18) ! Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, SPIRITUAL: Inspirational People who are interested in Marilyn Monroe Julie Andrews Audrey Hepburn should consider this download. Details: "My Christmas Card to You" is a song that was written with thoughts of those couples in love whom, for whatever reason, must be apart from one another at Christmas time. Turns out, though, that this song has also become the new "White Christmas" (which was the anthem for homesick American soldiers stationed overseas during the holidays in World War II). With its line "I wish you joy, happiness and PEACE," a lot of people who've heard "My Christmas Card to You" have said that with all the turmoil in the world today, it can be the new song for our brave men and women currently involved in conflicts worldwide. And because it's "My Christmas Card to You," you can sign this card (the CD itself), and then send it to the one you love. Regardless of whether that person is with the US armed forces halfway around the world...or right around the corner...your thoughtful wishes of joy, happiness and PEACE will be cherished forever. This first-ever release of "My Christmas Card to You" is performed by renowned Hollywood singer Marni Nixon. Be sure to check her spectacular biography below. BIO OF LEGENDARY HOLLYWOOD PERFORMER MARNI NIXON: When Natalie Wood was seen in the movie West Side Story, it wasn't she who was singing "Tonight" or "I Feel Pretty." Neither was it Audrey Hepburn who really sang "I Could Have Danced All Night" or "Wouldn't It Be Lovely" when she appeared in My Fair Lady. Deborah Kerr never sang "An Affair to Remember" in the movie of the same name, or "Getting to Know You" in The King and I. For all those actresses, the voice that actually sang the songs was that of Marni Nixon. Marni also sang part of "Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend" for Marilyn Monroe in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes. And she sang for herself when she appeared in The Sound of Music. Marni Nixon, who's the mother of famed pop singer/songwriter Andrew Gold ("Thank You For Being A Friend"), has had a stellar show-business career that's spanned 60 years. And it's still going strong. Marni's recently been acting on Broadway, and touring, as a cast member with "Cabaret," "James Joyce's The Dead," "Nine," "My Fair Lady" and "Follies." She's appeared on TV in "Law Order: Special Victims Unit" and many other shows, including her own children's TV show, "Boomerang," for which she won four Emmy Awards as Best Actress. No stranger to guesting on the talk-show circuit, she's appeared on Late Night with David Letterman and The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, among many others. Today, Marni Nixon is The Voice that Transcends Generations, as she sings "My Christmas Card to You." So celebrate Christmas with the one and only Marni Nixon. Get the first-ever release of "My Christmas Card to You." Then sign it...and send it to the one you love for Christmas!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)