A singer, songwriter and storyteller merging classic rock 'n roll with folk and the blues 6 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: Michael John (Mick) Toto Former lead singer for the 1960's rock group, "The Ants". The Ants were the house band at the legendary Pandora's Box on Sunset Strip and were produced by the great Johnny Otis (Willie and the Hand Jive) and Eldorado Records. Mick is an original singer/songwriter with a unique style that showcases his many musical influences, with a contemporary style and imagination. His "Rock n' Roll Depot Show" show also showcases Classic Rock n' Roll favorites. When time permits, Mick loves to entertain one on one at the Boardwalk at Venice Beach California. Be it one of his original songs or a great memory from the past, your soul will be touched.
Mick's recently completed CD is called "Be a Rocker". The title cut startles an anthemic rock song delivered with pure power and energy. Ironically, it is a story of a musician's life and his 30+ years on the road. You will also love Mick's other originals, "Fastest Gun" and "Want You to Want Me" as well as his tasteful renditions of songs from the Beatles, the Bee Gee's and the Eagles. "Be a Rocker" is produced by Michael H. Model. It is a small sample of what Mick has to offer and promises to leave you in great spirits.
