However, beneath the beauty lurks something dark, sinister almost. Call it a macabre subtext, but it creates a nice contrast to the band's anglo-infused pop. True to the title, Get In Get Out wastes no time on bullmake. Mink drops 10 pop-rock gems in about a half hour and wraps up the entire affair leaving the listener wanting more. They create something grandiose and majestic without the slightest bit of pretension. A must-have for any true fan of well crafted pop rock.
