The long awaited fourth album is here: Randy has many influences but a style of his own. Traditional yet contemporary with a flair of attitude. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Americana, COUNTRY: Country Folk

Show all album songs: Just Me Songs Details: Home grown music from a kid who grew up listening to real country music on the radio with Mom and Dad, and 60s and 70s rock and roll albums that belonged to his Brother and Sister. In the style of Robert Earl Keen and Steve Earl, Randys songs are stories of lifes vitality and mischievousness, loves promise, the payback for breaking that promise, and the sadness of losing family, friends and cherished places to tragedy or the time streaming by. At once personal, yet universal: telling the story like he was there-because he was, and sometimes he still is there. His lyrics reflect his travels through life, which have much of the same struggles weve all gone through. He always stands his ground for what he believes in and is not afraid to put it into song. His singing inflects the same way he talks when reminiscing about home, hunting, fishing, and a world encroaching on what he holds dear. His songs, his storytelling, will tickle you and make you laugh, touch you and make you cry, and leave you with a feeling that youre with a good friend having a cold beer on a hot day while fishing the banks of the St. Johns river. Randy counts among his influences; Merle Haggard, Hank J.R., Billy Joe Shaver, Bob Seger, John Mellencamp, Three Dog Night, Skynyrd and many more, but hes content having his own style of music. Hes written hundreds of songs, some covered by other artists, and had a few songs used for hunting and fishing shows. Much of his music is home based but that hasnt stopped people around the world from relating to his music. Whether youre an old fan or new, thanks for stopping by.
