Twenty new recordings of previously issued songs that are hard to get include First Time at a War the plight of a young disabled soldier and Tarpaper Shacks, why a miners heaven would be better than life on earth. 24 MP3 Songs FOLK: Political, FOLK: Alternative Folk Show all album songs: Thanksgiving Songs Details: Twenty new recordings of previously issued songs that are hard to get include First Time at a War the plight of a young disabled soldier and Tarpaper Shacks, why a miners heaven would be better than life on earth. Produced by Jesse Kahn and Pieter Groenveld, Si Kahn is joined by the superb harmonies of European Rounder recording artists Ygdrassil, Annemarieke Coenders Linde Nijland. Thanksgiving is Si Kahns fifteenth CD. Title song Thanksgiving sets the tone of fighting back while appreciating what we have. Whos Watching the Man takes on the privacy intrusions of the Patriot Act. Sixteen a celebration of passion even after 50, Rack Em Up Eddie captures the pool hall as a shield against deep personal loss, while Government on Horseback humorously uses the old Hollywood Western to laugh and exposes the old Reagan and the new Bush. Thanksgiving is a companion to In My Heart, (SCR-33), also a retrospective of many of Si Kahns best and most covered songs: Aragon Mill, Wild Rose of the Mountain, People Like You and Lady of the Harbor. Were Still Here (SCR-57) released in celebration of Sis 60th birthday in 2004 contains songs not recorded anywhere else including the power anti-war When the War is Done and The Gap , a funny but true telling of income disparity. On this recording, Si was joined by Liz Meyer on harmony vocals, and Joost van Es on violin.
