18 diverse rock bands from the late 90's indie scene contribute a total of 19 songs inspired by the grand game of pinball; includes White Stripes, BellRays, Dirtbombs and Bobby Conn. 19 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Flipper Action Culture scores big with the compilation CD Hot Pinball Rock Volume 1. Inspired by multiball magazine, a long-running indie publication dedicated to the spirit of pinball, Hot Pinball Rock Vol 1 collects all the split 45's released with issues 15-19. As a bonus, 9 additional tracks appear original to this CD. Also included, a twelve page booklet featuring photos and quotes pulled from the magazine's entire publication history. The premise behind the music on this CD was to find bands interested in recording songs inspired by the grand game of pinball. The result? An imaginative collection of songs recorded by an exceptional and diverse selection of indie rock voices from the late-90's. Following are the bands who stepped up to play the game: White Stripes Dirtbombs BellRays Fireballs of Freedom Get Down Syndrome Bobby Conn The Kent 3 The Necessary Evils Steve Mackay (sax player for Iggy Pop and the Stooges) Tara Key Sleepyhead Leatherboy The Fireflies The (Real) Pills King Louie The Newly Deads The New Memphis Legs (Eric Oblivian). Shoot up the center ramp. It's time to hit Pinball Rock City.
