Romany Belle and Macnair Palmer work for the same company, but they've been enemies ever since they lost important funding for a new project. The last thing they want to do is go away together on a business trip. However, what starts out as office warfare soon becomes hot, driving need and out of control passion to touch and taste, and very soon, enemies become lovers. Romany goes from hating Mac to needing him, but now she has a new problem. How to keep their little affair out of the hands of office gossips? How can she pretend indifference when she really wants to fuck the stuffing out of Mac?

Excerpt: "Honey, I would love to." Mac pulled her closer. "Is it making you horny?" "I've been horny since I met you." He laughed, stopped and pushed her against the wall. "We could probably spare a couple of minutes." Mac ground his hips against hers. "And have the fireman come hose us off? No, I'll pass."

"Spoilsport." They made their way down the stairs, but being twelve floors up, the descent took a while. At each landing, more people joined the exodus. As they descended, the smell of smoke grew worse-pungent. Once outside, they were greeted by the cool night air and the utter chaos of fireman, trucks and people frantically searching for friends and loved ones. Romany looked at the hotel. Two floors were spewing smoke from the windows. "Fuck! Television cameras." The bright lights of surging camera crews trying to cover the event were everywhere. Romany dropped her head onto Mac's shoulder. The last thing she wanted was to be half naked on television with Mac. Mac moved her away from the chaos. "It's okay. We'll be fine." "Fine?" Romany pushed away from him. "You and I are not supposed to be together-and we're naked and-you have that!" She glanced pointedly at his crotch area. How the hell could he still be hard? "Half naked." "I'm wearing a towel-that's naked to me. Get yourself under control." "What can I say? Any time I'm with you honey, my dick is on red alert with the possibilities you present." Mac pulled her into his arms and rubbed his towel covered cock against her stomach. "As for you being in a towel? Take it off and they'll forget looking at your face and focus on your body." He tugged at the towel playfully. "Or maybe not." "Jealous?" How sweet. In Mac's arms, Romany could almost forget any chaos around her. "Madly." He kissed her nose. "There's too much mayhem for anyone to notice us." But that wasn't the case. Suddenly, light blinded them and a reporter shoved a microphone their way. Romany whirled around, Mac at her back, his cock against her ass. "You two look like you had to rush out. Tell us what happened." The reporter sounded hungry for all the juicy details. "I-er, um" Romany stumbled for words. Great, now everyone will know about Mac and me. Mac was not so daunted. His arms wound around Romany's waist and pulled her back against him. "It all started when I saw her at the photocopier machine. I was on fire." Romany groaned. "Oh hell, not the photocopier story. The man wants to know about the fire." "I was on fire for you then and now." "It's didn't start out with sex straight away." Oh crap. Why did I say that? Both, the reporter and the camera man smiled, the fire apparently forgotten. "Pretty much," he said. "There's more to it than sex," she insisted. "Honey, you were sexually frustrated and I helped you with that." Mac sounded pleased with himself. "I seem to remember it wasn't a purely benevolent act on your part." The reporter looked interested. "So, how did you two get together?"
