! Related styles: POP: Dream Pop, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: Philadelphia locals may recognize Adrien Rejus lilting voice and classic Renoir good looks from her work with bluegrass outfit The Lowlands and rootsy trio Angel Band. Now, on solo debut A Million Hearts, Reju waxes in a new style, burnishing her timeless sensibility into laid-back sparkly pop that registers on the familiarity meter somewhere between Feist and Petula Clark. Rejus classically trained voice (she was a member of the Metropolitan Operas childrens choir) does crazy things here in the pop life, rising steady and high and then parachuting softly into the phrasing. The new songs (including a fun cover of the euphemistically optimistic Melanies Brand New Key) swish along with big harmonies and handclaps, holding a jaunty walk-along vibe where the living is breezy and hearts rise like little hot air balloons on the first day of spring.
