FOLK: Power-folk, COUNTRY: Americana Details: What they're saying about "Come Take the Waters" --
"Joy! Absolute joy! - in every note and between every note!" - "Masterpiece!" - "Brilliant!" - "I feel I'm gathered there with you!" - "Can't remember the last time I loved every song on a CD!" - "A mirror for how beautiful the music community is and can be!" - "Remarkable! This one isn't leaving my CD player anytime soon!" Amy says: Most CD notes close with gratitude -- this one begins there. Above all this project is composed of community and what happens when we circle up and sing. Most of it was captured in live settings up, down and across the state of Florida in festival campgrounds, living rooms overlooking rivers, the screen porch of an island house where we literally just set up microphones, sat down in a circle, played for the love of it and hoped we captured a moment of the magic the magic you hear here, between the notes, between the songs, between the hearts of each one who lent their voices and fingers and breath and brains to this music music born of those who taught us ... music born of the lessons they taught. People who are interested in should consider this download.
